

Literacy Narrative

Task: Write about an event that has been significant to you in your experience with literacy – reading, writing, verbal expression in general. Remember, a literacy narrative has features like:

- A well-told story – a dramatic situation that needs to be resolved
- Vivid details – place your reader in your shoes by giving them a clear sense of how things look and sound and feel
- A clear indication of significance -- the meaning and importance in your life of the event you chose to write about

Audience: Your classmates and teacher

Length: 3 full pages, 12-point Times New Roman font, double-spaced

Format: Later in the course, you will be learning about MLA (Modern Language Association) format later. MLA issues a set of guidelines for writing and documenting academic papers. If it sounds unfamiliar to you, don't worry! For now, just work on setting up your paper to follow MLA format, which looks like this:
